

How to Access Lynda.com

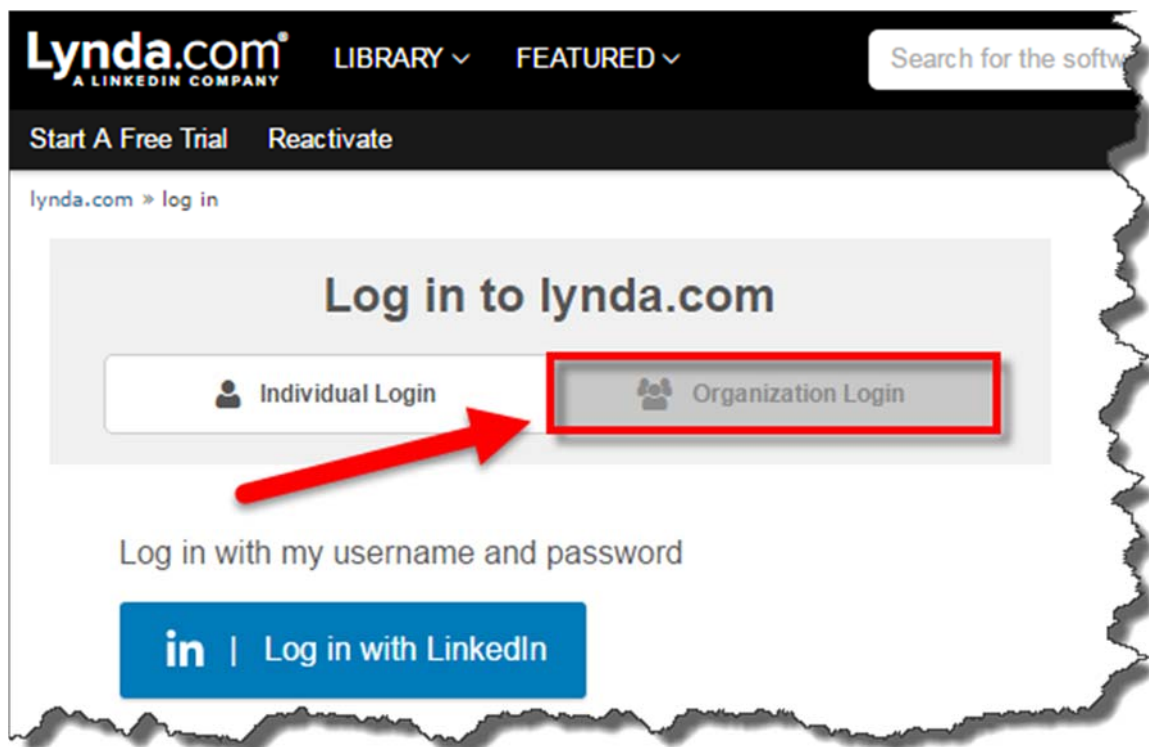

Lynda.com is a website dedicated to online learning by providing access to thousands of online video tutorials created by industry experts. The library of videos cover a range of topics including business, design, photography, and education to help you achieve your learning goals. Humber College has acquired a campus-wide license to Lynda.com to allow all of its faculty and students access to this learning environment.

The following are instructions to login to Lynda.com.

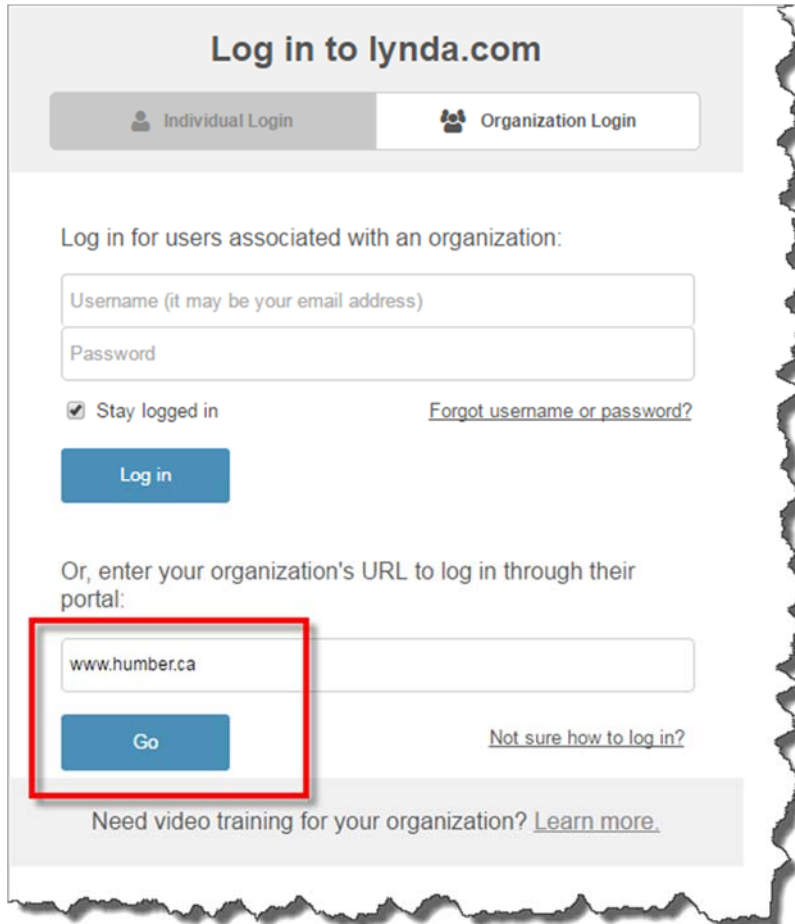

1. Go to <https://www.lynda.com/>
2. In the top right corner, click on Sign In.

3. Click on Organization Login.

4. Type in "www.humber.ca" to login using the Humber portal. Click Go.

5. It may or may not prompt you to login with your Humber credentials. Enter your username and password (the information you use to login to Blackboard) if you get prompted to login.

- Complete your lynda.com profile by entering your first name, last name, and Humber email address.
