HUMBER BY THE NUMBERS

- Humber College was founded in 1967. It was recognized as an Institute of Technology & Advanced Learning (ITAL) in 2003. The ITAL status allows Humber to offer up to 15 per cent of its programs as four-year Bachelor's degrees.
- In September 2013, Humber's first year enrolment exceeded 12,000 full-time students. First year enrolment at Humber's North Campus was 4,169 and Lakeshore was 8,378.
- From September 2012 to September 2013 Humber's full-time student population grew 3.66%.
- Humber receives more than 65,000 program applications annually; more than any other Ontario College
- Humber has received more program applications than any other Ontario college for the past fifteen years.
- Humber's program application rate has grown by 23 per cent over the past five years.
- More than four out of five Humber graduates are employed within six months of completing their studies.
- Currently, more than 3,000 students are studying four-year bachelor's degrees across 21 areas of specialization. This represents approximately one-quarter of all students studying in degree level programs in Ontario colleges.
- Humber collaborates with a number of internationally based institutions to deliver programs.
- Humber, in collaboration with the University of New Brunswick (UNB), offers one of the largest four-year nursing degree programs in Canada with a total enrollment of almost 800 full-time students. The entire four years of the UNB curriculum are delivered at Humber by Humber faculty.
- In June 2013, more than 8,000 students graduated from full and part-time programs.
- As of June 2013, Humber has had more than 200,000 graduates since its first graduating class.
- Humber offers joint programs through the University of Guelph-Humber and the University of New Brunswick as well as transfer credit opportunities with more than 50 Canadian and international universities.
