

Daniel McDonald

Law and Security Administration, 1978;
Advanced Police Science, 1983
Deputy Chief, Peel Regional Police

Deputy Chief Daniel J. McDonald has been a member of the Peel Regional Police for over 30 years. Rapidly rising through the ranks, Daniel has worked in the Intelligence Bureau, the Criminal Investigation Bureau, and has held the positions of uniformed staff sergeant, senior officer, inspector, officer in charge of uniform patrol, officer in charge of the Professional Standards Bureau, and staff superintendent. Daniel's work has included involvement in homicides, the drug squad and the Special Investigations Unit. He has twice received Exemplary Service Awards awarded by the Governor General of Canada.