

Suzanne Dimma

Interior Design, 1993

Principal at Suzanne Dimma Interior Design

Suzanne is the principal and creative director at the boutique design agency, Suzanne Dimma Design, specializing in residential interior design, decorating and consultations. She is also one of Canada's most recognized design and decorating experts. She is the former editor-in-chief of Canadian House & Home, and Maison et Demeure magazines, Canada's authorities on decorating and design. Suzanne's 20 years in the world of design media encompass conceptualizing, producing, writing, styling and art directing in both print and broadcast media. She has co-produced, co-created and hosted her own television series, and has written for publications, including House & Home, Cottage Life, Chatelaine, Wish, and Gardening Life magazines as well as the Globe & Mail, The Toronto Star and the National Post.