

James Derek Marchand

Law and Security Administration, 1996

Regional Indigenous Affairs Advisor, Canada Border Services Agency

James holds extensive experience engaging and collaborating with Indigenous communities and various levels of leadership and key stakeholders. His career has spanned many facets of frontline law enforcement and restorative justice, providing tremendous insight into the challenging and ever-evolving political and social relationship dynamics that exist. He serves as a role model, educator and advocate for Aboriginal rights, needs and culture.