

Mimmo Carbonara

Electromechanical Engineering Technology - Automation and Robotics, 2007
Owner & President, 416 Automation Inc.

416 Automation is a manufacturer of automated machinery, testing equipment and custom electrical panels, providing technical solutions to a variety of manufacturing companies in the automotive, packaging and electronic industries. Throughout his career, Mimmo has progressed from a role as a Service Technician to running his own company and working with some the biggest names in the automotive industry, including Magna International and Delphi.