

Mark Cameron
Paramedic, 1989
Co-Founder, Cimro

Mark Cameron devoted his career to saving lives, receiving the Governor General's Medal of Bravery for his service. In war-torn Syria, he put his own life at risk to save the lives of others by providing hands-on emergency care. As an educator, he has played a key role in the training of Ontario's advanced care paramedics. Cameron has repatriated sick and injured Canadians from every continent in the world except Antarctica. Alongside Dr. Jay Dahman, Cameron pursues humanitarian efforts in Syria through the Canadian International Medical Relief Agency (CIMRO), such as providing winter clothing for Syrian children.
