

Keon Lee

Paralegal, 2013

Justice of the Peace, Ontario Court of Justice

Keon Lee currently serves as a Justice of the Peace at the Ontario Court of Justice, a position he attained in August 2017 after only four years working as a licensed paralegal associate. Following a career as a social service worker, Lee returned to school to pursue his paralegal education, working at Anderson Sinclair PC since 2013. Lee is a long-serving member of the Canadian Armed Forces as a Cadet Instructors Cadre Officer, and has also been volunteering with various youth-oriented organizations for the past 16 years, including Canadian Cadet Organizations and the Boys and Girls Clubs.
