How to Apply

Applications are made through ontariocolleges.ca. See program page for details.

International Academic Equivalency

Admission equivalencies for Humber depend on your country of study. Please see admission requirements on the program page to enter your location.

Post-Admission Requirements

Once you have been accepted, and have confirmed your offer, you may need to complete a further set of requirements related to your program (Post-Admission Requirements).

Employment Requirements

The following may be required when applying to prospective employers in fields related to security and law enforcement:

- Standards for minimum hearing and vision
- Standards for mental and physical health, as well as good moral character and habits
- Security screening, including but not limited to police checks and vulnerable sector screening checks
- Emergency standards, such as Standard First Aid with CPR-C and Automated External Defibrillator (AED)

It is important for potential students to understand that certain requirements are beyond the control of Humber and may prevent students from obtaining employment in fields related to security and law enforcement. Applicants are advised to check the requirements for specific positions in which they are interested before enrolling in this program.
