The Critical Path is the course schedule. It is an important document that lays out weekly objectives that you are responsible for to ensure academic success. Print out a copy of the Critical Path and refer to it regularly.

In addition to following this course schedule, it is crucial to uphold academic integrity and understand the role of generative AI in your learning. This document will guide you in appropriate use of AI in this course; while emphasizing the principles of honesty, trust, fairness, respect, responsibility, and courage so you can uphold academic integrity.

Course AI Statement: The use of generative AI is not permitted/is permitted/is permitted in certain circumstances in this course. Using generative AI to aid in or fully complete your coursework will be considered a breach of academic integrity. Please review section 17 of the 2024-25 Academic Regulations for more information.

(If your course allows for the use of generative AI) Be aware of the potential for unreliable and biased content generated by AI. Ensure that any AI-generated content does not perpetuate inequalities and discrimination, and do not share confidential information with AI platforms.
