

Serving up QTBIPOC content, events and more!

WE BRING YOU THE Q STEW

A monthly newsletter for QTBIPOC (Queer, Trans, Black, Indigenous People of Color) information on events and resources around the GTA. To subscribe for Q Stew contact us at LGBTQ@humber.ca

SNEAK PEAK!

Clay | Art | & More

Art

Clay Making & Community Dialogue

Thursday, May 17 6-8PM

Where: The 519 | 519 Church St, Toronto, ON

Why should you check it out?

A free clay making workshop series for Asian-identifying LGBTQ+ individuals.

Photo Credit: Rice Roll Productions

Clay Making & Community Dialogue

Other workshop dates:

May 24 6-8PM & May 31 6-8PM

For more details:

CLICK HERE

Spotlight: Brianna

Brianne Roye is a Jamaican-Canadian photographer (and a Humber graduate). Her work, "Out of Many One People" displays queer and trans folks with Caribbean heritage. This free art show runs from May 3rd-May 19th. Definitely a must see!

Photo Credit: Brianna Roye

OUT OF MANY,
ONE PEOPLE

a solo show by brianna roye
OPENS MAY 3RD, 7-10 PM

margin of eras gallery • 1684 queen street west • may 3rd-20th

Photo Credit: Brianna Roye

Where: 1684 Queen St West,
Toronto, ON

Gallery Hours: Wednesday-Friday
12-7PM, Saturday 12-5PM

For Brianna's Website

CLICK HERE

Photo Credit: Unit 2

FAB 40: BRICKS & GLITTER FUNDRAISER

Saturday, May 26 9PM

Where: 163 Sterling Road, Toronto ON

Why should you check it out?

A fundraiser for Bricks & Glitter, a festival for Toronto's trans, queer and two-spirit communities. The one and only Carolina Brown will be hosting. Brown is a trans latinx song-writer and was a guest panellist at our Flip the Script event.

Spotlight: Natashaia

Natashia is an artist, graphic designer and zine extraordinaire. Her recent multi medium project, "Sad Pepe Club" is a series of digital illustrations that "shows loneliness and desperation for companionship".

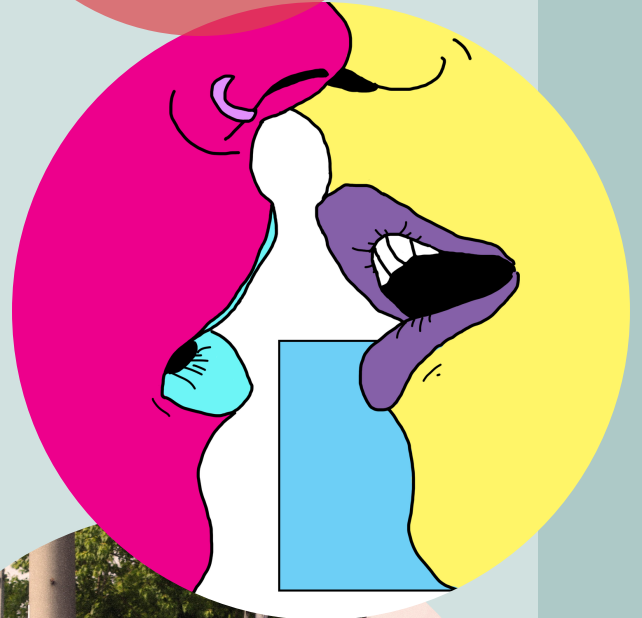

Photo Credit: Natashaia Faustino

For Natashaia's Instagram

CLICK HERE

Read

Photo Credit: Getty Images

Rihanna's
Lingerie Line
Brings Up a Complicated
Discussion About Language

Why should you read it?

A perspective piece on Indigenous and Black community relations and unpacking the word savage.

For more details:

CLICK HERE

Why The Stew?

Unlike soups, stews are not diluted by liquids. The information our newsletter presents is far from watered down. We deliver QTBIPOC-related content to you and from you. Please share your resources to:

LGBTQ@humber.ca