Sheyfali Saujani: Voice Over

Imagine a Journalist: What do you see?

My name is Sheyfali Saujani.

I am a brown-skinned, white-haired woman holding a white cane.

I am partially blind.

Recently – I retired after 33 years as a radio producer. When I entered the profession, I didn't know a single other reporter who looked like me.

In fact, I didn't know of any other disabled journalist anywhere.
