

Calvin To B.A.

Calvin To is a first generation Chinese Canadian who is passionate about issues of human rights and equity. Last summer, Calvin produced a podcast entitled “Voices of the Pandemic”, which follows the lives of Asian Canadians as they experience racism during the COVID-19 pandemic.

2021-2022
EQUITY AND INCLUSION
DIALOGUE

Sustainability
Innovation Equity Courage
Health & Well-being

THE “YELLOW PERIL”: WHY ANTI-ASIAN RACISM WON’T DISAPPEAR AFTER THE PANDEMIC IS OVER

Event Details

Date:
Tuesday,
November 16, 2021
Time:
1:00 pm - 3:00 pm
Location:
Webinar

Calvin To, a third year law student at Osgoode Hall Law School came to the legal profession after a career in broadcast journalism. He is actively involved in promoting awareness of anti-Asian racism among a wide range of audiences, including most recently the Ministry of the Attorney General’s Hate Crime Working Group.

Learning Objectives:

- Learn how early Chinese settlers came to Canada
- Learn how anti-Asian racism originated and spread in Canada
- Learn some of the common anti-Asian stereotypes and how to refute them
- Learn how COVID-19 has changed the reality of anti-Asian racism in Canada

Register - <https://bit.ly/3cQXecB>