

2022-2023 Equity & Inclusion Dialogue

Sustainability,
Equity, Courage,
Health &
Well-being

Unlearning, Disrupting and Dismantling: Necessary Tasks in Addressing Racism

Workshop Description:

This session adopts racism as a given and works towards providing a clear frame for unlearning, disrupting and dismantling racism at the individual, institutional and systemic levels. The overall goal of the session is:

- To provide steps and tools for dismantling racism at all levels .
- To situate self both as a site of racist oppression and an agent of racial change
- To explore ways of addressing institutional policies and practices (Educating for an anti-racist/anti-oppressive future)

Friday,
Nov 4th, 2022
9:00 am to 12:00 pm

Register - <https://bit.ly/3QM3Awu>

This session will be hosted virtually

Dr. Kathy Hogarth

Ph.D

Dr. Kathy Hogarth is Dean and a Professor in the Faculty of Social Work at Wilfrid Laurier University. Her primary areas of research, service and teaching are on critical race, racism and equity in Canada and international contexts.

She has extensive experience in the work of equity, diversity and inclusion, and is particularly interested in organizational and societal transformation that leads to more equitable and just worlds.