

Speak up and out against CONTRACT CHEATING

Contract Cheating “form of academic dishonesty where students get academic work completed on their behalf, which they then submit for academic credit [and/or advantage] as if they had created it themselves” (“About Contract Cheating”, nd)

October 18/2017

Students, Faculty, Staff, Administrators, all those who value learning!

Participate in the Whiteboard Declaration!

On a whiteboard write a personal declaration about why contract cheating is wrong—add the hashtags #defeatthecheat #excelwithintegrity - then tweet or post to Facebook

Contract Cheating erodes learning, is dishonest, and unethical.
