

TEACHER AS COACH

The art of teaching has transformed over the years and while we recognize it, we tend to hold onto familiar and traditional approaches that no longer fit today's students, or effective learning strategies. No longer are we a person who passes on information, skill or even necessarily knowledge. Our focus has shifted to facilitating student learning while coaching students in diverse ways, and to support them to reach their full potential by empowering students to take ownership in their education. Join this interactive discussion on the role of "teacher as coach".
