

The Dean's Message

"As we start the new term it is timely to reflect on the accomplishments from the end of 2016. Once again the many initiatives that weave together our faculty, staff and students continue to demonstrate our commitment to our school values of compassion, inclusion, respect, self-awareness and integrity. I hope you enjoy these stories, and if you have one of your own you would like to share, click here."

- Derek Stockley
Dean, School of Social and Community Services

Faculty Highlight

Humber Instructor Named Top HR Professional

Congratulations to Gabriella Fermo on her accomplishment of being named one of the Top 25 HR Professionals by the Canadian HR Reporter. Gabriella was recognized for her achievements for designing and delivering the Public Safety Leadership course in the Fire Service Executive Management Certificate offered here in the School of Social and Community Services.

Read more >

Event Coverage

Young Criminal Justice Professional Networking Gala

On November 24th the Young Criminal Justice Professionals hosted their 3rd Annual Networking Gala in association with Humber's School of Social and Community Services.

Read more >

CSI Photo Competition

The Crime Scene Investigation program teaches students a range of skills, including photography. The program recently held a photography competition with over 200 submissions that showcased that the talents of the students extend far beyond taking pictures of a crime scene.

Read more >

Transformative Social Change Symposium a Success

The Transformative Social Change Symposium was held on November of this year at Humber College with over 100 people attending the event, which brought together students, academics, community members and activists together.

Read more >

In Situ Multi-Arts Festival

Humber helped support a three-day multi-arts festival that was held back in October in which over 750 high school students were able to engage and connect with Humber Visual & Media Arts students, Music students, and Child Youth Care students.

Read more >

Event Cont'd

Volume 1, 2017

The School of Social and Community Services provides pathways for students to pursue a career and make a difference in their community. Outstanding student services, state-of-the-art facilities and practical work placements along with expert faculty made for a rewarding student experience. We are dedicated to delivering more than an education - we are changing lives!

WE ARE CHANGING LIVES

School Awards Night

On November 29, 2016, we hosted our annual awards night in collaboration with Humber Student Awards.

Read more >

Living Our Values

Last spring the School of Social and Community Services engaged in a school-wide exercise to define the values of the school. From this work came a commitment to the values of respect, inclusion, compassion, self-awareness and integrity.

Read more >

SSCS Super PAC

On November 14th the School of Social and Community Services brought together all of the Program Advisory Committees to host the first school wide Super-PAC meeting.

Read more >

Success

Continuing Education Workshops

Humber College's School of Social and Community Services Continuing Education has continued with its workshop series in the Fall 2016 semester – this time opening up workshops to all students within SSCS.

Read more >

Premier's Awards

The Premier Awards celebrated the achievements of Ontario college graduates in the province and throughout the world and this year our School nominated one of our very own, Jillian Andrew from the Child and Youth Worker Advanced Diploma.

Read more >

Lest We Forget

On November 12, 2016, one of our students wrote an article to the St. Thomas Times Journal about her veteran Uncle Frank who served during the Second World War, Korean War, and Cold War but became one of the forgotten.

Read more >

COI Launch

The School of Social and Community Services was pleased to be part of the launch of the Centre of Innovation in Health and Wellness. The COI in Health and Wellness is a partnership between SSCS and the School of Health Sciences, the School of Hospitality, Recreation, and Tourism, and the Humber Arboretum and Centre for Urban Ecology.

Read more >