

Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA)

The AODA Committee Needs You

Committee Mandate

Humber College's AODA Committee is a government mandated committee that works in collaboration with Humber College on issues related to increasing compliance with the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA). The committee also works alongside the College to promote full accessibility and inclusion for the Humber community.

Why Join?

- You will be able to positively impact the lives of all members of the Humber community by helping to identify and remove barriers for people with disabilities
- You will have an opportunity to provide input and feedback on the development of all AODA initiatives
- You will work alongside committee members to recommend regulations, policies, programs and practices that will benefit the College community

This committee meets five times per year. The 2016/2017 upcoming schedule is as follows:

Meeting Dates	Time	Location
Friday, November 25, 2016	9:00 am to 11:00 am	LRC 6084
Friday, January 27, 2017	9:00 am to 11:00 am	LRC 6084
