

LGBTQ+ @Humber

September 18 –LGBTQ+ at Humber: Making friends and allies
September 25 – Toronto’s queer community
October 2 – Queers: Know your rights at Humber!
October 9 – Coming out, being out
October 16 – Celebrating and negotiating multiple identities: being queer, a person of colour and/or person with a disability
October 23 – Queers we look up to: LGBTQ+ people who inspire us
October 30 – Safe sex, great sex!
November 6 – Creating and sustaining healthy relationships
November 13 – Alcohol, drugs, and the queer community
November 20 – Being queer in our families
November 27 – Pre-Pride group celebration (we know it’s early, but let’s celebrate!)

When:
Wednesdays, 3:25-4:15pm
Begins September 18

Where:
A Building, Room 116A
Note: Our first meeting – September 18th – will be held in room B118

- An opportunity to meet other LGBTQ+ students
- An opportunity to talk about issues that matter to you, in a supportive and confidential space
- A space for students who are questioning their gender and/or sexual orientation, and for students who are “out”
- Led by LGBTQ+ identified facilitators

For more information:
counselling@humber.ca (416) 675-6622x3331

LGBTQ+ @ Humber works from an anti-oppression framework. We recognize that LGBTQ+ students face systemic oppression on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, race, body size, class, ability, immigration status, country of origin, culture, age and religion. We are committed to creating an environment that celebrates diversity, and challenges all forms of oppression.

COUNSELLING SERVICES

