

2SLGBTQ+ STUDIES: TOPICS IN GENDER AND SEXUALITY

Certificate of Accomplishment | CE0002

Through an interdisciplinary focus, this foundational certificate will begin to allow students to better explore and challenge the histories of sexuality and gender normativity across multiple political, legal, workplace, artistic, literary, and cultural contexts.

Students will participate in an interactive, engaging, and inclusive and safe community-building space.

Program Structure:

- Six 15-hour (5 weeks) courses in the certificate
- Delivered in an online hybrid model with both synchronous and asynchronous delivery
- The synchronous classes will run from 6:00pm - 9:00pm EST in the second and fourth week of each course
- To complete the certificate, you will need to take all four compulsory courses and one elective course

Compulsory Courses

- EDIQ 100: Foundations in 2SLGBTQ+ Studies
- EDIQ 101: Working with 2SLGBTQ+ Communities
- EDIQ 102: 2SLGBTQ+ Representation in Popular Literature and Media
- EDIQ 103: Sexualities and Identities in the 2SLGBTQ+ Spectrum

Electives

- EDIQ 104: The Politics of 2SLGBTQ+ Human Rights and Global Issues
- EDIQ 105: Supporting 2SLGBTQ+ Employees In the Workplace

- 4 compulsory courses
- 2 elective courses
- Courses can be taken in any order; learners do not need to start with EDIQ 100

Learn more:

