

Bringing in the Bystander

Bringing in the Bystander is a two-hour workshop during which participants will gain an understanding of sexual violence, rape culture, consent, and how to intervene in instances of sexual violence; through a series of activities, participants engage with these topics and develop empathy for survivors of sexual assault.

To request a Bringing in the Bystander training session, please fill out our Workshop Request Form. To learn more about the program, email bystanderprogram@humber.ca or visit our Bystander Intervention at Humber College/University of Guelph-Humber webpage.