What is an Employee Resource Group:

Employee Resource Groups are voluntary, employee-led groups that foster a diverse and inclusive workplace aligned with organizational mission, values, goals, business practices, and objectives. Additional benefits include the development of future leaders, increased employee engagement, and expanded marketplace reach. - <https://www.catalyst.org/topics/ergs>

-  Humber employees who identify as Black/African and are interested in joining this ERG, can indicate during the RSVP process or by sending an email to Tola Olupona, Advisor, Human Rights, Equity and Diversity at Tola.Olupona@humber.ca.
