The Dean's Message

February 2021 has been nothing short of impactful! Exciting webinars, work-integrated learning opportunities and alumni successes filled the calendar.

The pinnacle of achievement was noted through the recipients of the Faculty of Business Special Awards. These exceptional students have demonstrated an outstanding commitment to their academic studies, the Faculty of Business and the community at large. Virtual celebrations will take place in March, recognizing student scholarship award recipients.

Four groups of students shared their accomplishments at the Faculty of Business Operations meeting. Everyone in attendance was proud of their commitment to professional development and for continuing to strive for excellence in a virtual environment.

Digital Business Management alumni launched a series of forward-moving virtual workshops showcasing the newest digital technologies and applications for Tech Week 2021. Another example of connections made through the Faculty of Business community.

Read on for highlights from accomplished guest speakers to cross-program collaborations.
