

Are You Trying to Balance School and a Job?

We'd love to connect with you!

Details

- Participation takes approximately 20 minutes
- Get a gift card for completing the survey
- Help inform recommendations to support students like you

The Centre for Innovation in Health and Wellness (CIHW) is inviting Humber students to take a quick survey about work insecurity and its impact on their health and well-being.

Whether you work part-time, or contract, or in gig roles, your voice matters.

Join us at one of our recruitment events to participate!
