The Fitness Timeline is a business created by Alex Pecora (pictured on the top left) focused on fitness and living a healthy lifestyle.

The goal of The Fitness Timeline is to deliver fitness classes through a network of trainers to clients in the most convenient way. Whether that be on your driveway, or at the nearest park or school.

Trainers will have the opportunity to deliver private group sessions that will be organized through a series of fitness bubbles, that the client can even take part in creating!
