

Sayema Chowdhury BSc, B.Ed

Sultan Rana M.Ed

2021-2022
EQUITY AND INCLUSION
DIALOGUE

Sustainability
Innovation Equity Courage
Health & Well-being

RAISING COLLECTIVE CONSCIOUSNESS ON ISLAMOPHOBIA

Event Details

Date:

Friday,
September 24, 2021

Time:

10:00 am - 12:00 pm

Location:

Webinar

Join us for conversations to unlearn possible biases and misunderstandings we may carry with us into our practices, as well as how we have been socialized to normalize Islamophobia, rendering our personal Islamophobia unexamined and unchallenged. The webinar will culminate with a variety of resources for exploration to raise collective consciousness, as well as provide suggestions for disruption of Islamophobia when we are faced with it.

Learning Goals:

- Build our understanding of what constitutes as “Islamophobia”
- Examine the subversive and pervasive nature of Islamophobia in Canadian society
- Examine some ways in which deficit narratives on Muslims are perpetuated and sustained
- Engage in dialogue and discussions on examining personal bias and internalized racism
- Explore resources to raise our own awareness, and
- Be better equipped to recognize and disrupt Islamophobia

Register - <https://bit.ly/3BvG1Aq>