

Get Recognized as a Certified Microsoft Azure Professional

25% OFF
FOR HUMBER
STUDENTS*

Valid for the first 10 students to enroll. Promo code: RBC25*

Launch Your Career With Cloud Computing.

The Microsoft Azure Administrator Bootcamp Micro-credential provides learners with product insights and practices, skills and competencies that will equip and empower learners to future-proof their careers and enter the workforce as certified Microsoft Azure professionals.

REGISTER NOW

Get Qualified

The program consists of thirteen modules including learning outcomes, key topics, and concepts that prepare learners with the knowledge and skills required to obtain two Microsoft Certifications:

- Azure Fundamentals (AZ-900)
- Azure Administration (AZ-104)

In addition, learners will be equipped with the Microsoft Azure skills required to improve their overall employability and labour market resiliency.

Bootcamp Overview

- Cloud Concepts
- Architecture and Services
- Management and Governance
- Identity
- Governance and Compliance
- Azure Resources
- Virtual Networking
- Intersite Connectivity
- Network Traffic
- Virtual Machines
- PaaS Compute Options
- Data Protection

In partnership with Microsoft and HCLTech, Humber Continuous Professional Learning has designed the Microsoft Azure Administrator Micro-credential program to help upskill individuals to fill the demand for skilled Microsoft Azure professionals in Canada.

RBC Future Launch

In addition to Microsoft and HCLTech, RBC has invested in this program in support of RBC Future Launch, a commitment to helping Canadians prepare for the jobs of tomorrow.

Find out more about Humber Continuous Professional Learning at humber.ca/cpl.