June 29, 2021

Time:

9:00 am - 12:00 pm

Location:

Webinar

This intensive applied workshop will help members of the Humber community provide caring, informed services, and allyship to gender-diverse students and colleagues. Topics will include contexts encountered by faculty, athletic departments, administration, student services, and more.

Workshop Goals:

- How and when to use certain terms
- Learn successful confrontation techniques when witnessing or responding to a concern about prejudice (conditional outness and microaggressions, and systemic implications)
- Adapt procedures, promotional efforts, curriculum, course outlines, conversations, and office environments to support diverse clients and colleagues
