CANADA'S MULTICULTURAL SOCIETY:

HOW DID WE GET HERE?

CULT 206 (GNED)

What does it mean to be Canadian? In this course, you will analyze issues relevant to Canadian identities, including climate change, colonial history, its ongoing treatment of Indigenous peoples, and its areas of poverty, to explore whether prosperity is attainable for citizens of all diverse economic and cultural backgrounds.

THIS PROGRAM IS RIGHT FOR YOU IF:

- You are interested in Canadian culture and studies
- You want to increase your competency as a culturally-aware leader in your field
- You want to understand ethical dilemmas in the politics of multiculturalism
- You're ready to work in a diverse group setting that will expand your cultural knowledge

CHILDREN,

PLAY AND CREATIVITY

ECE 113 (GNED)

Play and creativity is fundamental to children's early development. The Children, Play and Creativity course helps you develop the skills to design learning environments and experiences that nurture unstructured play and imaginative abilities in children and adults alike!

THIS PROGRAM IS RIGHT FOR YOU IF:

- You're looking to develop the skills to design learning environments that are play and creativity-friendly
- You are from any academic background and interested in children's development
- You understand the importance of creativity in learning environments, no matter what industry
- You want to become a better parent, caregiver, or ally to children in your community and chosen career

HEALTH AND

WELLNESS CONCEPTS

BHSW 1001 (DBE)

Wellness should be everyone's priority, but where do you get started? On the path to health and wellness, there is so much information, and a variety of determinants and dimensions to consider. This unique course gives you the opportunity to explore diverse concepts of health and wellness.

THIS PROGRAM IS RIGHT FOR YOU IF:

- You're interested in increasing your ability to assess health and wellness information
- You're open to collaborative, peer-to-peer, group work in your courses
- You want to increase inclusivity in health and wellness settings
- You would like to communicate health and wellness messages effectively through a variety of methods

INTERCULTURAL

COMMUNICATIONS

BUS 2505 (DBE)

From global organizations to personal connections, understanding intercultural communications will help you relate in a meaningful way across borders. Get the skills that will set you apart on the globalized stage! Evaluating your own culture, values, beliefs, biases, and identities, this course will help you adapt on the international stage.

THIS PROGRAM IS RIGHT FOR YOU IF:

- You have an interest in international issues and curiosity for culture
- You understand the importance of cultural sensitivity in your communities and workplace
- You are ready to reflect on your own cultural lenses and layered identities
- You want to communicate better personally and professionally with everyone

OPTIMIZING HIGH PERFORMANCE

BUILDING DESIGN

PROJ 300 (Course Elective)

The UN reported at COP26 that the building sector accounts for 38% of total global energy-related CO<sub>2</sub> emissions. To advance us to reach net-zero, this course will advance understanding of low energy, high performance buildings for the security of our future.

THIS PROGRAM IS RIGHT FOR YOU IF:

- You are excited by embodied carbon, renewable energy systems and microgrids in buildings
- You are interested in Passive House design and software applications used for certification
- You want site visits that demonstrate current applications of emerging trends and high performance buildings
- You want to be an innovator in your sector for achieving sustainability and supporting climate change mitigation
