

MITACS Informational Session

WED., OCT. 13 | 12:00 P.M. TO 1:00 P.M.
REGISTER ONLINE TODAY

Mitacs is a national, not-for-profit organization that provides support and funding to foster collaboration and innovation across Canada and the globe. In this info session, Business Development Specialist Rachel Sung will be sharing funding opportunities offered by Mitacs that supports research and innovation collaborations between academic institutions and partners from industry, non-profit organizations, hospitals and municipalities.

Session Overview

- Introduction to Mitacs
- Funding opportunities for applied research at colleges offered by Mitacs
- Application overview and process
- Mitacs-NSERC joint application opportunities

Bio: Rachel Sung is a Business Development Specialist with Mitacs and has worked with various stakeholders in the industry, community, and academia to identify the appropriate funding opportunities for R&D projects. She has supported projects of various sizes, ranging from four months to multi-year collaborations, and connected partner organizations with the appropriate academic expertise to solve their R&D challenges.

If you have any questions please contact Tania Massa at Tania.Massa@humber.ca

→ Register today for MITACS Information Session
(<https://ncv.microsoft.com/I6SXnnwvLe>)