A SNAPSHOT OF SCHOLARLY ACTIVITY HAPPENING IN THE CTL THIS MONTH AT HUMBER

FEBRUARY 2018 | NEWS FROM THE CTL SOTL TEAM

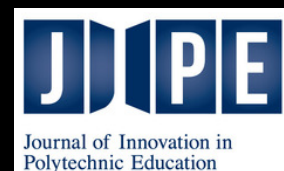

Writers' Collective

The Writers' Collective is a new scholarly initiative launched by the CTL this year. It is an opportunity to dedicate some time to writing in a quiet group setting. Come, have some coffee with your peers, and write quietly in a focused environment. All are welcome and attendance is flexible - stay for the entire 3 hour session or for as long as your schedule permits; come some weeks and not others.

The Writers' Collective meets at 9 a.m. on the second Friday of each month, at the North in D236, and on the fourth Friday of every month at the Lake in F103.

Looking to publish your first scholarly paper?

Do you have a paper that you'd like to publish in a peer-reviewed scholarly journal? JIPE is devoting a special issue to first-time authors! Authors will submit their papers, receive peer-review feedback, and be paired with an academic mentor at an off-campus retreat, to work through the revision process.

For more information, or to submit a paper, contact Heidi Marsh:
