

Premier's Awards

2022 Nominees

The Premier's Awards celebrate the achievements of Ontario college graduates in the province and throughout the world.

Below are this year's amazing nominees from Humber College.

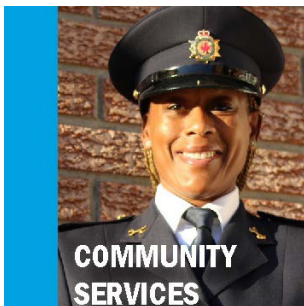

Lisa Kimmel

Public Relations, 1996

Chair & CEO, Canada and Chair, Latin America and Global Women's Equality Network, Edelman

With 25 years in the PR and business sector, Lisa Kimmel has contributed to the advancement of her profession in Canada and abroad. She is Chair & CEO, Canada and Chair, Latin America and Global Women's Equality Network and Global Managing Director of Edelman's Sector Specialty Agencies, DJE Holdings. Along with being an agent for change and promoting inclusive and empowering workplace cultures, Lisa champions women and her industry's evolution through leadership and mentorship. She is a WXN Top 100 Most Powerful Women in Canada Hall of Fame inductee and a YWCA Toronto Women of Distinction Award-winner for Corporate Leadership.

Jacqueline Edwards

Law and Security Administration, 1994

President, Association of Black Law Enforcers

Jacqueline Edwards began her career with the Correctional Service of Canada and became the first female president of the Association of Black Law Enforcers (ABLE), initiating important conversations and relationships to reform anti-Black racism in law enforcement. She was awarded the Queen Elizabeth II Golden Jubilee Medal, and in 2021, she received the Ontario Association of Chiefs of Police's President's Award of Merit, the highest honour for Ontario police leaders. Jacqueline leads by engaging diverse voices in building bridges between the sector and the community. She serves on several sector boards and committees, advocating and emphasizing the co-creation of change.

Carson Arthur

Landscape Technician, 2004

Landscape Designer, Television Personality, Author

Carson Arthur is a globally recognized landscape designer and a renowned figure surrounding green living. As an Outdoor Guest Expert on Cityline for the past decade, he reaches 2.1 million weekly viewers across North America focusing on eco-friendly spaces and a mantra that champions a healthier planet. Carson is the owner and founder of Carson's Garden + Market and the author of the sold-out Garden Designs for Outdoor Living and the Amazon best seller Vegetables, Chickens and Bees. He leads by example and with integrity as the spokesperson for notable brands and accomplished over 150 unique designs for television projects.

Mark Cameron

Primary Care Paramedic, 1989

Founder and Co-President, Canadian International Medical Relief Organization (CIMRO)

Mark Cameron is an advanced care paramedic who has trained physicians, nurses and many of Ontario's advanced care paramedics. His humanitarian work has been recognized by the United Nations, the World Health Organization, as well as the Canadian and British governments. He has worked in the Ukraine to assist in lifesaving care with orphaned children and provided emergency care and vaccinations to over 1.4 million children in Syria that eradicated a polio outbreak from spreading across Europe. Cameron has received the Meritorious Service Medal and two Governor General Medals of Bravery for his extraordinary humanitarian service.

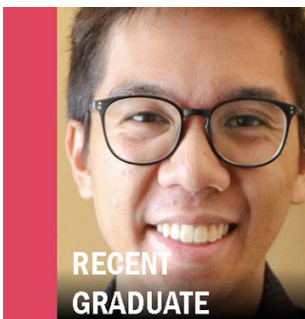

Michael London

Interior Design, 1998

Principal, Michael London Design

Michael London is a multi-award-winning luxury interior designer and the owner of Michael London Design. Through his unique style and innovation, he has earned an ARIDO (Association of Registered Interior Designers of Ontario) award and two ARIDO President Citation awards, in addition to two BILD (Building Industry and Land Development Association) awards. London's sought-after work spanning a 20-year career includes high-profile commercial projects inspired by iconic luxury brands and private residences, situated within prestigious communities from Toronto to New York. A minority in his sector, London remains a champion for bringing diversity to design.

Mason Victoria

Bachelor of Music, 2017

Freelance Media Composer and Sound Designer

Conductor, arranger and sound designer Mason Victoria captivates audiences and listeners with a unique talent and maturity far beyond his years. The MARTY Award and Ron Lenyk Inspiring Youth Arts Award winner received honours for his contributions to a thriving art sector locally while his original compositions have reached as far as Los Angeles and Tokyo. At age 19, Mason was invited to conduct his large ensemble music in New York with the New Music Jazz Orchestra. He has performed alongside JUNO-winning artists and as Artistic Producer at Spectrum Music, he's developed thought-provoking concerts that explore the world around us.

Darran Malcolm

Arborist Apprenticeship, 2001

Vice President, Eastern Utility Operations, Davey Tree Expert Company of Canada, Limited

Darran Malcolm is an Urban Arboriculture graduate, a former college instructor in his field and a lifelong employee of Davey Tree Expert Co. of Canada where he now serves as Operations Vice President (OVP). Darran joined Davey as a spray technician prior to earning his ticket as an apprentice. He received a series of promotions leading to more senior positions and currently oversees almost a third of Davey's business. Beginning in 2016, he spearheaded Davey's diversification into the industrial vegetation management sector, one that now represents 20 per cent of the company's operations.