

National Economics University & University of Danang, Humber College ITAL SUMMER ABROAD 2024

Dates: May 6-7 and June 3-4, 2024 (Toronto), May 9-26, 2024 (Vietnam)
Price: $7,100 + Humber regular course tuition fees

Bursary of up to $4,000 for eligible students!

This summer study program offers a memorable journey from the North to the Centre of Vietnam, a Southeast Asian country with breathtaking landscapes, rich culture and a fast-growing economy. While Hanoi is one of the most ancient capitals in the world with rich history and a fascinating blend of East and West, Danang is a dynamic city and the driving force for development of the Central-Highlands region, surrounded by UNESCO World Heritage sites: Ancient City of Hoi An, the My Son Holy land and Hue's Imperial City. The program will be filled with classes on campus with NEU/UD and Humber faculty and experiential learning in the afternoon and weekend site visits, field trips and community services guided by faculty and local experts.

You will earn Humber credit(s) for either a diploma general education or a degree breadth elective course.
