THE NIGHT AT A GLANCE

On January 17th, an unforgettable evening of music and celebration will take place in downtown Toronto in celebration of Humber's 50th Anniversary.

The evening begins with a cocktail dinner followed by a special concert in Koerner Hall. Hosted by the legendary jazz broadcaster, Ross Porter, the concert features some of Canada's finest musicians with performances from Humber's Faculty Big Band directed by Denny Christianson featuring Pat LaBarbera and Al Kay with special guest, Kurt Elling; Rik Emmett; Laila Biali; and Rich Brown's rinsethealgorithm. The night closes with a post-concert after-party, where musicians and guests can mix and mingle.

The evening is also for a good cause, our students. Your support of the event will provide scholarship support to deserving students across the College making their academic journey possible. Join us, give the gift of education and enjoy everything the evening has to offer making it truly a night to remember.
