

Pathways to Human Rights Education & Action: Integrating Head and Heart

Human Rights Training Sessions for 2018/2019

All Humber employees who have attended Humber's human rights training session prior to December 2017, are required to attend a 'Pathways to Human Rights Education & Action' training session. This includes sessional, contract, part-time, and full-time employees.

Participants at the workshop will:

1. Increase their understanding of key Human Rights terms and concepts in order to more effectively prevent, recognize and respond to human rights related allegations;
2. Receive resources that will assist in enhancing inclusion at Humber; and
3. Receive Humber's Human Rights Policy.

To facilitate your attendance, training sessions will be offered throughout the 2018/2019 academic year through an online registration process. The next available training sessions at the North & Lakeshore Campuses will be offered on the following dates:
