

Pathways to Human Rights Education & Action: Integrating Head and Heart

Human Rights Saturday Mornings Training – 2019 Non-Fulltime Faculty

Last year, the Centre engaged the Humber community in a participatory process of reviewing and obtaining comments on Humber's revised Human Rights Policy and Complaint Resolution Procedures. The Centre has recently launched Humber's updated Human Rights Policy and Complaint Resolution Procedure.

The Ontario Human Rights Commission requires that all employers provide ongoing education and training on the organization's human rights policy. As such, all Humber employees (full-time, non-full time, work study) are required to update their knowledge of the Human Rights Policy and Complaint Resolution Procedures.

We understand that non-fulltime faculty may experience scheduling challenges to attend a week day training session and for this reason the Centre will be offering training sessions on Saturday mornings for non-fulltime faculty.

Please note: All Humber employees who have attended Humber's human rights training session prior to August 2018, are required to attend a 'Pathways to Human Rights Education & Action' training session. This includes sessional, contract, part-time, and full-time employees.

Participants at the workshop will:

1. Increase their understanding of key Human Rights terms and concepts in order to more effectively prevent, recognize and respond to human rights related allegations;
2. Receive resources that will assist in enhancing inclusion at Humber; and
3. Receive Humber's Human Rights Policy.

The next available training sessions at the North & Lakeshore Campuses will be offered on the following dates:
