

The Day of the Locust is inspired by the funny but desperately sad film world, circa the 1930's, and explores the corruption, inequality, hopes and desires of the dreamers of "Hollywoodland".

HUMBER THEATRE presents

THE DAY OF THE LOCUST

Adapted & Directed by KARIN RANDOJA
Featuring the work of the Humber Theatre Performance and Production students

Based on the novella by NATHANAEL WEST

Set & Costume Design • HEATHER KENT / Lighting Design • LAIRD MACDONALD
Sound Design • VERNE GOOD / Rehearsal Stage Manager • ERIN FITZGERALD

HUMBER STUDIO THEATRE
(Humber Arts and Media Studios • 300 Birmingham Street, Etobicoke)

MARCH 6-9 • 7:30PM & MARCH 9 • 1:00PM

TICKETS are $15 available @eventbrite and $20 at the door