Kale Salad - Toasted Coconut & Sesame Oil

Serves 4

Ingredients:
- 1/3 cup/ 80 ml extra virgin olive oil
- 1 tsp toasted sesame oil
- 2 tsp shoyu, tamari, or soy sauce
- 3 ½ lightly packed cups/ 3.5 oz. / 100 g chopped kale, stems trimmed, large ribs removed
- 1 ½ cups/ 3 ox/ 85 g unsweetened large-flake coconut
- 2 cups/ 9 oz. / 255 g cooked farro or other whole grain (optional)

Instructions:
Preheat the oven to 350 F/ 180 C with two racks in the top third of the oven. In a small bowl or jar, whisk or shake together the olive oil, sesame oil, and shoyu. Put the kale and coconut in a large bowl and toss well with about two-thirds of the olive oil mixture.

Spread the kale evenly across two baking sheets. Bake for 12 to 18 minutes, until the coconut is deeply golden brown, tossing once or twice along the way. If the kale mixture on the top baking sheet begins to get too browned, move it to the lower rack.

Remove from the oven and transfer the kale mixture to a medium bowl. Taste. If you feel it needs a bit more dressing, add some and toss. Place the farro on a serving platter and op with the tossed kale. Serve warm.

Vegan Rice Paper Rolls

Serves 2 – Prep Time: 10 minutes – Total Time: 10 minutes

Ingredients:

- 5 sheets Vietnamese Rice Paper (vegan)
- 1 large Carrot, Julienned
- 1 small Cucumber, Julienned
- ½ an Avocado, cut into slices
- Small bunch Thai Basil
- 2 ounces Tofu, cut into strips (we use Satay flavored Tofu)
- ½ cup mixed Salad Leaves
- 1 Red Chilli, de-seeded and cut into thin strips
- Hoisin Peanut Dipping Sauce ($2.99 approximately at grocery store)

Instructions:

Prepare a large bowl of hot water to soften rice paper in. Working one at a time, submerge rice paper into hot water (be careful!) for about 5-10 seconds, or until it is just starting to soften. Don't soak it for too long or it'll tear to bits.

Place a small bed of salad leaves in the middle of the softened rice paper, and then top with small amounts of every other ingredient. Although tempting, try not to over-fill the rolls as it will make it hard to roll up.

Roll rice paper roll up, egg-roll style. (Bottom up, sides in, and roll to close).

Serve with hoisin peanut sauce at the side. Rice paper rolls are best eaten fresh.

Sweet Peas and Shells Alfredo

Serves 2 generously or 4 petite

Ingredients:

½ pound (225 grams) fried small pasta shells, regular, whole wheat, or if you’re a poor planner, a mix
1 cup (455 grams) fresh shelled peas (from about 1 pound in the pod)
1 cup (240 ml) heavy cream
3 tbsp (40 grams) unsalted butter
Freshly ground black pepper
1 tsp finely grated fresh lemon zest
1 cup (115 grams) finely grated Parmesan cheese
2 tbsp chopped fresh flat-leaf parsley

Instructions:

Bring a large pot of salted water to boil. Add the pasta, and cooked according to package instructions. Add peas to cook during the last 30 seconds of pasta cooking time. Reserve ½ cup pasta cooking water, and set aside. Drain the pasta and the peas together.

Dry out the pasta pot, and pour in the heavy cream. Bring the cram to a simmer, and cook it until slightly reduced, about 4 minutes, stirring frequently. Add the butter, and stir it until it has melted. Generously season the sauce with freshly ground black pepper; add a pinch of salt as well as the lemon zest. Add ¾ cup of Parmesan, and stir it until the sauce is smooth; then toss in the drained pasta and pas. Cook the pasta in sauce for 2 minutes, until the sauce has slightly thickened. Add the reserved pasta water by the spoonful if needed to loosen the sauce.

Divide the pasta among bowls. Garnish with remaining Parmesan and the flat-leaf parsley.

Little Quinoa Patties – Parmesan, Garlic, Herbs

Makes 12 little patties

Ingredients:

2 ½ cups/ 12 0z/340 g cooked quinoa
4 large eggs, beaten
½ tsp fine-grain sea salt
1/3 cup/.5oz/ 15 g finely chopped fresh chives
1 yellow or white onion finely chopped
1/3 cup/.5 oz./15 g freshly grated Parmesan cheese
3 cloves garlic, finely chopped
1 cup/3.5 oz./100 g whole grain bread crumbs, plus more if needed
Water, if needed
1 tbsp extra-virgin olive oil or clarified butter

Instructions:

Combine the quinoa, eggs, and salt in a medium bowl. Stir in the chives, onion, cheese, and garlic. Add the bread crumbs, stir, and let sit for a few minutes so the crumbs can absorb some of the moisture. At this point, you should have a mixture you can easily form into twelve 1-inch/2.5 cm thick patties. I err on the very moist side because it makes for a not-overly-dry patty, but you can add more bread crumbs, a bit at a time, to firm up the mixture, if need be. Conversely, a bit more beaten egg or water can be used to moisten the mixture.

Heat the oil in a large, heavy skillet over medium-low heat, add 6 patties, if they’ll fit with some room between each, cover, and cook for 7-10 minutes, until the bottoms are deeply browned. Turn up the heat if there is no browning after 10 minutes and continue to cook until the patties are browned.

Carefully flip the patties with a spatula and cook the second sides for 7 minutes, or until golden. Remove from the skillet and cool on a wire rack while you cook the remaining patties. Alternatively, the quinoa mixture keeps nicely in the refrigerator for few days; you can cook patties to order, if you prefer.

Farro Soup - Curry Powder, Lentils, Salted Lemon Yogurt

Serves 8

Ingredients:

2 tsps extra-virgin olive oil, plus more serving
2 large onions, chopped
1 cup/ 34.5 oz / 125 g peeled and diced sweet potato or winter squash
Fine-grain sea salt
1 tbsp plus, 2 tsps Indian curry powder
2/3 cup/ 4.5 oz. / 125 g whole or semi-pearled farro, rinsed
6 to 7 cups/1.4 to 1.7 liters vegetable broth or water
1 cup/ 8 oz. / 225 g plain yogurt or Greek-style yogurt
Grated zest and juice of ½ lemon

Instructions:

Heat the oil in a large soup pot over medium-high heat. Stir in the onions and sweet potato. Add a big pinch of salt and sauté until the onions soften a bit, a couple of minutes. Add the curry powder and stir until the onions and sweet potatoes are coated and the curry if fragrant, a minute or so. Add the farro, lentils, and 6 cups/1.4 liters of the broth. Bring to boil, decrease the heat to a simmer, cover, and cook for 50 minutes, or until the farro and lentils cooking time is about 25 minutes.) Taste and season with more salt if needed; how much you’ll need depends on the saltiness of your broth. Don’t under-salt; the soup will taste flat.

While the soup is cooking, in a small bowl, stir together he yogurt, lemon zest and juice, and about ¼ tsp of salt. Serve each bowl of soup topped with a dollop of lemon yogurt and a drizzle of olive oil.

White Bean Spread – Rosemary & Toasted Almonds

Makes about 2 cups/ 16 oz/ 450 g

Ingredients:

- ¼ cup/ 60 ml extra-virgin olive oil
- 1 tsp chopped fresh rosemary
- 1 clove garlic, finely chopped
- 2 cups/ 12 oz/ 340 g cooked white beans or 1 (15-ounce/ 425 g) can, rinsed and drained
- ¾ cup/ 2.5 oz/ 70 g sliced almonds, toasted
- Fine-grain sea salt
- 1 tbsp fresh lemon juice, plus more if needed
- ¼ to ¾ cup/ 60-180 ml hot water
- Grated zest of ½ lemon

Instructions:

In a small saucepan, combine the olive oil, rosemary, and garlic. Over medium-low heat, slowly warm the mixture until the oil just barely starts to sizzle, 1 to 2 minutes. Remove from the heat and set aside for 10 minutes. Pour the oil through a strainer and discard the garlic and rosemary bits.

In a food processor, combine the beans, two-thirds of the almonds, a scant ½ tsp salt, the lemon juice, and two-thirds of the rosemary oil. Pulse a couple of times to bring the ingredients together.

Add water at a time, pulsing all the while, until the mixture is the consistency of thick frosting. The amount of water depends on how starchy the beans are and how thick you would like the spread to be. Taste and adjust with more lemon juice or salt, if needed.

Scoop the spread into a small serving dish and make a few indentation in the top. Sprinkle with the lemon zest and the remaining almonds, and drizzle with the remaining rosemary oil.

Tres leches rice pudding

Serves 8

Ingredients:

1 cup (180g) long-grain white rice

¾ tsp table salt

One 12-ounce can (1 ½ cups or 355 ml) evaporated milk

One 13.5-ounce can (1 7/8 cups or 415 ml) unsweetened coconut milk

One 14-ounce can (1 ¼ cups or 390 g) sweetened condensed milk

1 tsp vanilla extract

1 cup (240 ml) heavy or whipping cream, chilled

1 tbsp confectioners’ sugar

Ground cinnamon, to finish

Instructions:

Cook the rice: put the rice, 2 cups of water, and the salt in a medium saucepan with a tight-fitting lid. Bring to a boil – you should hear the pot going all aflutter under the lid and puffing steam out the seam. Reduce to a low simmer, and let the rice cook for 15 minutes, until the water is absorbed. Remove the rice pot from the heat.

Once the rice is cooked, whisk the egg in a medium bowl, and then whisk in the evaporated milk. Stir the coconut and sweetened condensed milks into the rice, then add the egg mixture. Return the saucepan to heat and cook the mixture over medium-low heat until it looks mostly, or about 90 percent, absorbed (the pudding will thicken a lot as it cools), about 20-25 minutes. Stir in the vanilla extract, then divide the pudding among serving dishes. Keep the puddings in the fridge until fully chilled, about 1 to 2 hours.

To serve: Whip the heavy cream with the confectioners’ sugar until soft peaks form. Dollop a spoonful of whipped cream on top of each bowl of rice pudding, dust with ground cinnamon, then enjoy!
